Why Whirling Chief?

At Whirling Chief, our core mission is to champion humanity into the workplace. We are the world’s first digital collaboration & learning platform solely focusing on leadership and management topics that put people first.

Our difference is in the content...

We talk, write, study, research, publish and consult on leadership and management practices with a unique spirit: people first! Our curated content is specifically designed for bridging gap between science and practice and with an objective of helping individuals, teams and organizations thrive!

We bring world-known academic & world-class business expertise to your door...

Our academic collaborations include Carlson School of Management, Harvard Business School, Wharton School of Business and Indian School of Business; our growing number of business collaborations include Google, Inc., StartWithWhy, WhyNotPartnersing, Agile Talent Collaborative, adaQuest, Team Elements.

With our expert facilitators, we share global curriculums that integrate and welcome unique perspectives and life experiences. You will not only leave with an enriched experience and an expanded business network, you will learn practical strategies for achieving your professional and organization’s goals.
Is your HR organization ready for 21st century? Can you balance between requirements of today and future? Are you in a position to leverage technology and respond to digitalization of work in response?

This workshop is designed for senior business and human resources professionals who wish to take their people management skills and processes to the next level.

Program Objectives
Class completion effectively enhances your proficiency in developing, implementing, and executing on people strategy, and grants you access to a wealth of tools and resources that will help you lead people management into 21st century.

Curriculum
Enriched by latest research from Harvard Business School, Stanford University and Wharton People Analytics/ Applied Positive Psychology and we will cover topics as such:

• Overview of changing demographics & business environment
• Sharing of research findings & real-life case studies
• What’s the role of HR in 21st century?
• How to build people strategy inside an organization?
• How to think about organizational culture?
• The significance of strengths-based management
• Evolution in people processes
• Influence in technology
• The promise behind organizational capability building
• Discussion around competencies required for the future of HR
• Practical tools to self-develop and support evolution of our function

Outcome(s)
Attendees will benefit from learning how to:
1. How to relate to business environment and strategy,
2. How to formulate a HR strategy/ people agenda,
3. How to develop right capability, processes and tools to enable a culture of inclusion, connectivity and creativity.

Facilitators: Vendula Pavlikova & Sesil Pir
Length: 1 Day (8 hours)
Where: Zurich, Switzerland
When: November 2nd, 09:00 to 17:00 hrs
Cost: 2000 CHF

Facilitators

Vendula Pavlikova is the founder of Authentic Achievers. She brings together her 12 years’ professional experience in the corporate world across a wide range of industries and her passion for Emotional Intelligence and Positive Psychology.

She works with leaders and teams around the world helping them use emotional intelligence to get better results. Her mission is to guide people to live a fulfilling life and to teach them how to take care of their emotional well-being. She lives with her family in the beautiful cross-border region in Switzerland.

Sesil Pir is a recognized industrial psychologist and human resources expert with two decades of field experience serving Fortune 100 companies globally. She is currently serving as the founder and consulting lead of SESIL PIR Consulting GmbH, focused on building more effective organizations, leaders, and teams.

As an organizational development specialist, Mrs. Pir studies how organizations build and rebuild capabilities through systems management and team and leadership development. She is an active member of several international associations and a trusted voice in her industry, sought after to share her perspective on individual and industrial findings.